Fourth Annual Ruth Benedict Lectures

Presented by

GHASSAN HAGE
University of Melbourne

THE MANAGEMENT OF COLONIAL INHERITANCES

Wednesday 25 March
4.10 PM
Sulzberger Parlor,
Barnard Hall,
Barnard College
Reception to Follow

This lecture explores the question of moral viability as a process of management of one’s inherited debts. If the gift carries the spirit of the giver, what kind of spirit is carried in the stolen extracted good that we all inherit?

These lectures are made possible through the generous funding of the Department of Anthropology and the Institute for Social and Economic Research and Policy, Columbia University.